Sorry
Let's prepare two traps or three.
Okay
We've better stop coming here ...
I am going to participate in battle royale.
Summer tournament?

Eh? It's a big summer event for DF !!!.
Why don't you play in a Tournament ?
The tournament is good though.
Since you get to battle with highly skilled opponents
Battle royale is just for fun.
Besides, I can defeat more VP in battle royale.
And I can score more when playing alone.
That's enough.
I've been wondering
Why do you care so much for the kill score ?
Just as you care so much for rankings in such tournaments.
I have my own goal !
Defeating 1,000 VP ?

Though I am being slowed down by Crow
Heh ~
You are a dreaming girl, mo'om.
It's just a game
Yes, yes ~
But a free ticket has been given to you
So, why don't you join in the tournament ?
Even so, one needs a true motivation for even a game to go on !
Why don't you make a copy of Benkei and join the tournament.
That's enough.
Ah there he is
Kurato kun !

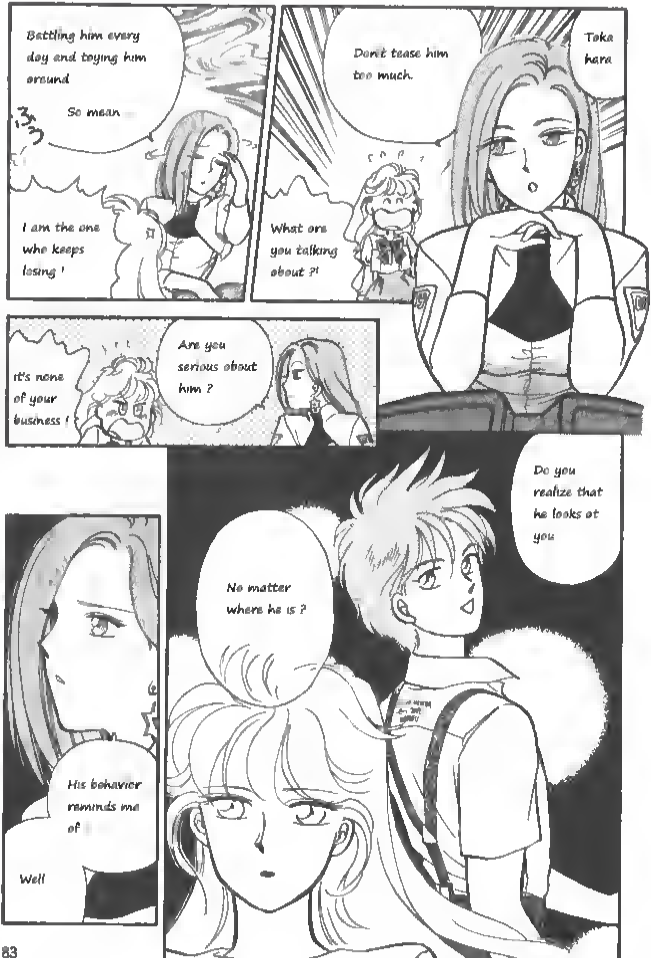
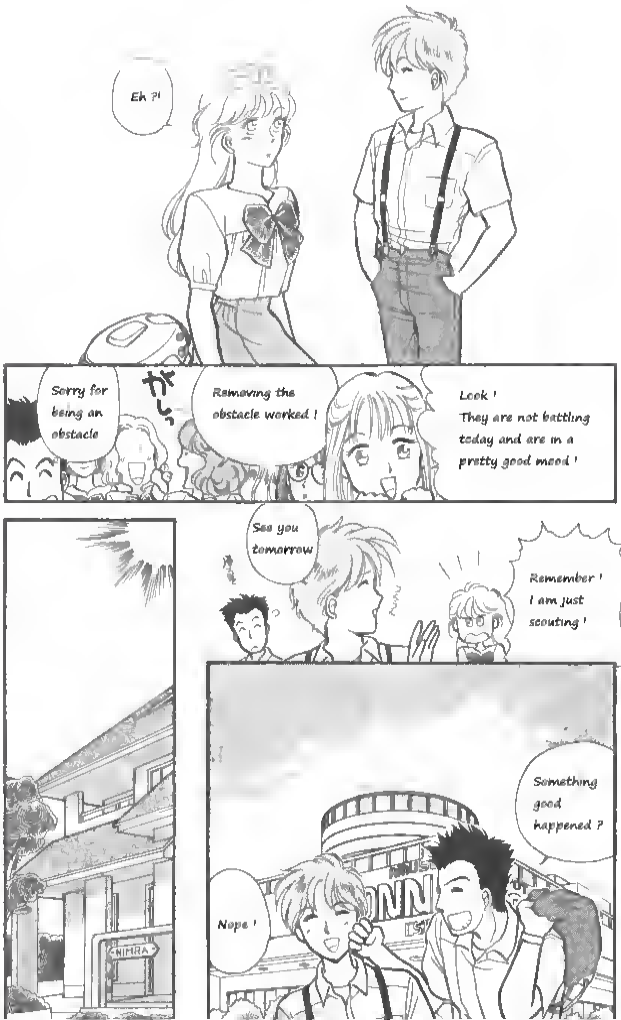
Teach us how to play pinball !
Let him be I am sure he is enjoying that.
Sorry that they take Kurata-kun every time.
Well now
Why don't you have a fight?
I am so sorry ! But I didn't bring Crow because repair wasn't done fully !
Eh ~
I am gonna go apply for Battle royale.
Should have told me earlier !
I have not even held her hand yet !
After this one, the battle royale will start
Thanks.
Actually did bring the disk.
I have not even ..
I am not backing off ...



Battling him every day and toying him around
So mean
I am the one who keeps losing !
Don't tease him too much.
What are you talking about ?!
Toka hara
it's none of your business !
Are you serious about him ?
Do you realize that he looks at you
No matter where he is ?
His behavior reminds me of
Well

Sairi-san, I am leaving now
I need to submit my application for the tournament.
Like a little puppy that is waiting for his food ...
Master, this part-time woman keeps being very rude to me
Bye now
Nimura kun !
Eh ?!
I don't ... know
Crow's repair ..
Waah
When will it be done ?
Is she trying to lure me ?
Why don't you visit my home ?



Eh ?!
Sorry for being an obstacle
Removing the obstacle worked !
Look ! They are not battling today and are in a pretty good mood !
See you tomorrow
Remember ! I am just scouting !
Something good happened ?
Nope !

Wow!
As expected, you know!
It was a good VP
I was using the VP before I used Benkei

I didn't know defeat until half a year ago.
Until I was beaten by – a couple of V.P.
One was Barajey of Dagger and a strange V.P. that seemed to have been completely redesigned.
Eh ?!
I was really – resentful at that time ...
I still remember the screen displaying name of the winner.
I swore to myself that I'd defeat him one day

I apologize.
That I went out with you only for the purpose of defeating you
Eh
You see.
After I started using Banker,
I sought you out on the battle fields.

How come ?
And I was deeply saddened.
But those foolish guys kept trying to fight me and Benkei ...
Go out with me if you lose.
I am sorry
Because every other guy was exactly like you
You might have not even bothered fighting others.
In other words, it it weren't me,
Sa ...
Sairi-san ?!

Can you like me who may not be a VF pilot in heart ?
Can you?
It will be no use
Even if you get angry after !
A chance!
You probably tried to fight and defeat me because you probably thought I designed Benkei and piloted it
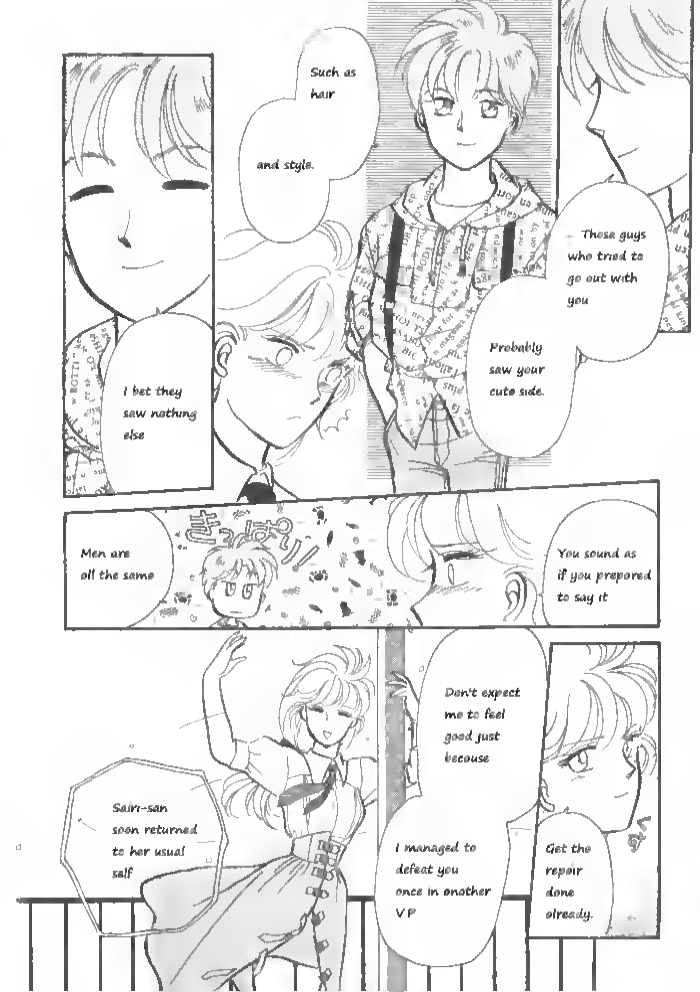
I may pilot Benkei
But I did not create him
Sorry



Such as hair and style.
These guys who tried to go out with you
Probably saw your cute side.
I bet they saw nothing else

Men are all the same
You sound as if you prepared to say it
Don't expect me to feel good just because I managed to defeat you once in another VF
Get the repair done already.
Saim-san soon returned to her usual self

Because ... ! I realized that
She cares for the creator of Benkei as much as how much she cares Benkei itself
Well, I am sober now !
Let's go back.
But in the end, I could not ask her
Who was the creator of Benkei
Man ... I am .... so ... pitiful.
They are still at it ...
You've returned !

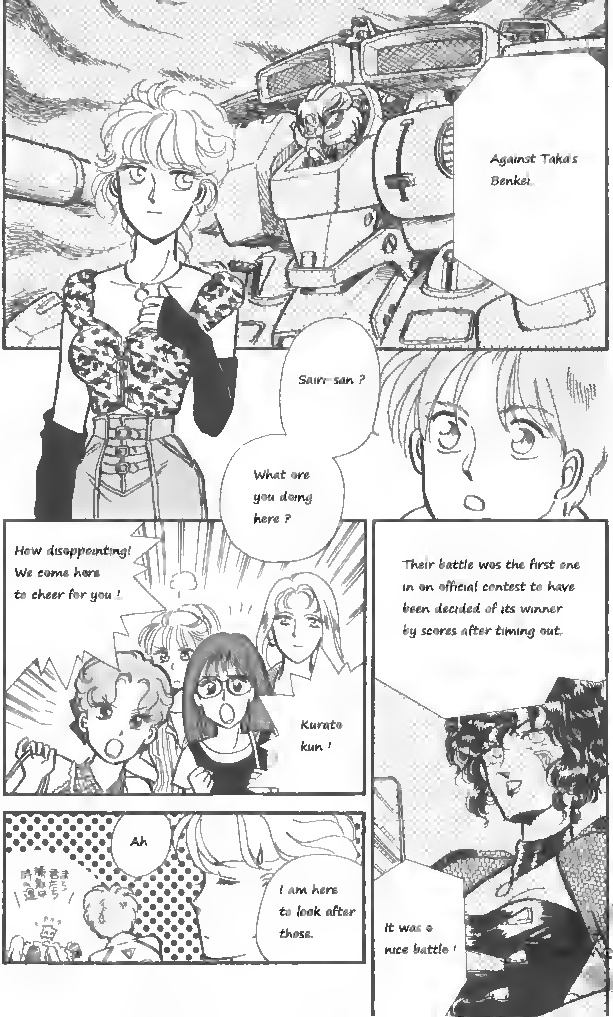
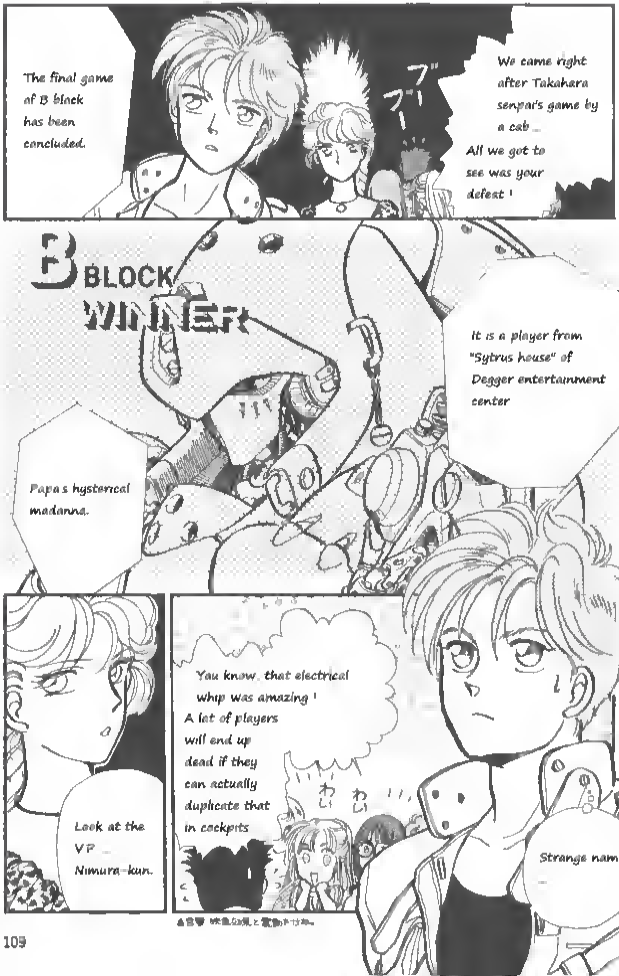
Hello- this is the official channel studios for the national league tournament.
ARCHIVE PANEL

It seems we have the result for semi-final of elimination contest in region 27.
Damn it !
Dai-suke !
A BLOCK WINNER
The final winner of A block is a player from Canny palace.
Kilin's Crew
That was close Daisuke.



Against Taka's Benkei.
Saimi-san ?
What are you doing here ?
How disappointing! We came here to cheer for you !
Kurata kun !
Their battle was the first one in an official contest to have been decided of its winner by scores after timing out.
Ah
I am here to look after these.
It was a nice battle !



The final game of B block has been concluded.
We came right after Takahara senpai's game by a cab ...
All we got to see was your defeat !
B BLOCK WINNER
It is a player from "Sybrus house" of Dagger entertainment center
Papa's hysterical madonna.
Look at the VP ... Nimura-kun.
You know, that electrical whip was amazing ! A lot of players will end up dead if they can actually duplicate that in cockpits
わい わい
Strange name

Against Dai's shiningbelt it was shot down by the hysterical madonna's electrical whip
Don't you think it looks similar to Crow ?
You think so, too ?
It's probably because the base model is the same
I don't believe this !
It was Crow !
Ha - ?
Crow's data might have been stolen !

I was skeptical when I just left the battle area
なんで今更！？
Eh ?!
But I am now sure. Whoever it was, he simply tried to make it look feminine.
You can't tell ? You made the V.P
On the day the two players must arrive at their gaming centers by 11 o'clock. Prepare your V.P.
It's not surprising. People generally don't get to fight their own V.P
Got it ?
Nimura san ! Go for it ! We will cheer for you !
The final game for region 27 will be decided 3 days later. it will be a battle against two lightweight V.P. that have been completely customized.

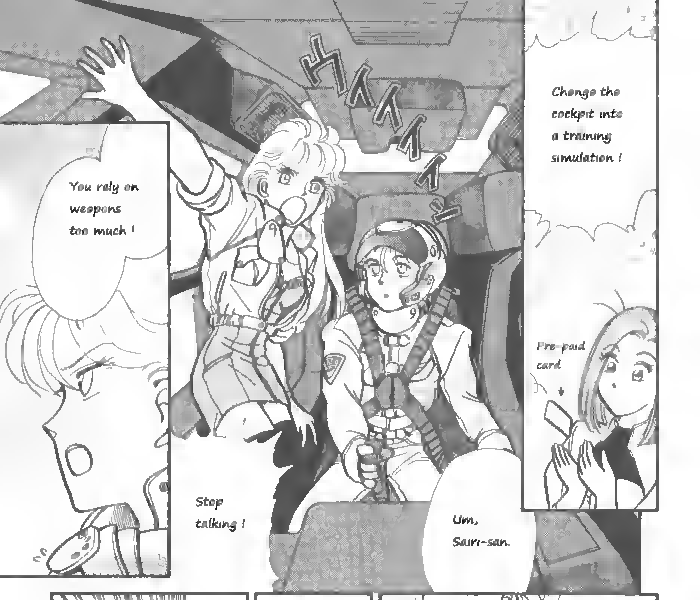
Wait for the final game to decide the ultimate winner !
See you again. Good luck !
I hope so
If he is right, this will be a big problem.
Not you, too —
Well, since VR's equipments could be bought online there were always possibilities.
— That concludes the broadcasting of the contest.
The center is returning to normal operation.
Damn it ! Who the hell is it ?!
I think Daisuke might have been mistaken.

Are you saying this player Papa has stolen Nimura-kun's VF and is using it ?
Is that allowed ?
Of course, not !
But there is no evidence ...
Yes, there is no evidence
Unless the hacker admits his deeds, there is no real way to prove.
It will cause some stir and that will be it
Therefore I am going home.
I need to repair Crow that has been beaten to crap by Benkei.
You are leaving when Takahara san is right here ?
Take her to your home !
Enough.
Kilie !
UFU

Wait up
Be honest
You feel really insecure now, don't you
Can you tell ?
Of course, I can.
We've known each other for 13 years
Whether it was stolen or not ..
The real issue at hand is that the VF has the same abilities as Crow
What makes this worse is that weapon.

If you do choose to fight with guns with barely any armor at all as Crow currently does.
If you want to avoid being electrocuted, you either have to use guns and keep a safe distance or...
Grab a melee weapon and fight at an extremely close distance.
I was laughing at the weapon at first
But the weapon can be extremely useful when used well
If it hits inner circuits of a VP, it will be disabled pretty much
You will meet the same fate as me and my shining bolt
Then you should get lessons from a hardened veteran!
What?
Ahhh, what to do now?!
You think guns will work well against an opponent of such speed?
Well
If VP are the same.
The deciding factor will be its pilot's skills.

I am not sure what could be accomplished with only 2 days.
But let's do what we can.
Eh ~, so Takahara is going to train him ?
Woah
Well, she has the most experience among you guys. Her battle time alone is 3 times more.
Don't leak private data !
That is not how you should do this !
They are already at it
Wait.
I see what you are trying to do, but why do you have to do it so ineffectively ?
Eh ?!
Eh !
Ah, no !



You rely on weapons too much !
Stop talking !
Change the cockpit into a training simulation !
Pre-paid card
Um, Sairi-san.

Got it ?!
Yep
Seikado's Storm.
For an example, if you are going all melee ..
Thus .. person ... !
And how you macro buttons is a big mess.
Concept of your VP is lightweight and simple.
So.. macro buttons as simple as possible

Fo ...
Fool !
!!
What is ?
Shampoo You use the same one I use at home.
You are a kind of person who becomes blind when you concentrate at something
Saim-san, can I kiss you ?
What ?!
It is Crow we are talking about here. The VF you've developed just to defeat Benkei
Sorry
How come ... ?
I want you to win.
Sorry

Ah, so...
Inside of cockpits are monitored at the service counter !
What are they doing
Monday
"Sytrus house" is not a Conny Palace
It's probably a small gaming center where they keep only few DPS units
A Conny Palace is here ?
We didn't have to come here though.
Oh ! it's over there !
Daisuke insisted that he must see who the player is

Doesn't this place feel a little weird ?
How did they move the units up there?
It's an elevator entrance
